Dear Fellow Citizens,

Beginning of Spring

The first buds grow, curiously reaching toward the light.

Birds are chirping; their calls are like a gentle poem, carried by air that has grown softer.

In the streets, jackets grow lighter, thoughts wider, and glances more open.

People no longer simply move forward — they lift their heads.

People pause and notice that even the heart is warmed by the light.

Beginning of spring... Now you may bloom again.

Wishing you a wonderful spring,

Your Mayor, Doris Köbernik
